..... PETITIONER(S)

AND

The Spl. Chief Secretary and Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Station Road, Nampally, Hyderabad.

.....RESPONDENT

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to Issue an appropriate writ, Order or Direction, more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus, declaring the action of the respondent in not considering and disposing of the representations dt. 15.09.2004 & 25.9.2004 as arbitrary, illegal, and unjust and consequently direct the Respondent to dispose of the representations forthwith, and to grant such other relief or reliefs as this Hon'ble Court deems fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.

Counsel for the Petitioner: SMT.KAVITHA GOTTIPATI

Counsel for the Respondent: GP FOR REVENUE

The Court at the stage of admission made the following ORDER:

The only grievance of the petitioners is that their representation dated 25-09-2004 has not been properly considered for transferring the leasehold rights of the property in their favour in spite of the second petitioner addressing a letter dated 15-09-2004.

The very fact is that the representation itself is made on 25-09-2004 and the petitioners cannot complain the inaction on the part of the respondent without giving any breathing time to consider the same. However, the respondent is hereby directed to consider the said representation in the light of the letter addressed by the second petitioner dated 15-09-2004 and also the memorandum of understanding sent through letter dated 07-07-2004 within a period of three months from the date of this order.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.

1st OCTOBER, 2004.
